

Single Block Relief Print

First, areas that will not print are carved away.

Then, registration tabs are carved into the block to register the paper to the image.

The relief areas are then inked, the paper registered onto the block and pressure applied to transfer the ink to the paper

