

Chapels Of San Luis

Size: 10" x 10"

Edition: 14

Release Date: October 2002

Print Processes: Woodblock and letter-press

The book illustrates the chapels near the small community of San Luis in southern Colorado. The chapels are south of San Luis along the Culebra River and have been active since the 1940's if not earlier. This is the third book produced at Dry Creek Art Press with the type printed on a 1934 Vandercook #2 proof press. The color illustrations are all reduction woodblocks printed on the Vandercook press as well.

